YB signs MoU with Social Research Foundation

Move to promote scientific research and undertake initiatives for student development

YB REPORTER

With an aim to promote scientific research and undertake initiatives related to student development, YBCCP and Social Research Foundation (SRF) Aurangabad entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) in October.

Principal Dr Zahid Zaheer said that the MoU has been signed with a common aim to promote and communicate scientific knowledge with larger audience, social scientists, researchers, students and activists through sound research, eradicate ignorance of mankind, besides working for the aged and promoting better understanding on issues related to ageing.

"In consultation and coordination with YBCCP, we look forward to mutual working on the concerns of the aged. We have mutually agreed for jointly holding conferences, seminars, symposia, workshops, training programmes and activities related to academicians and student development initiatives," said executive president of Social Research Foundation Dr Sanjay Salunke.

According to the MoU, YBCCP shall provide the infrastructural facilities like accommodation, library, internet for above-mentioned activities, while the SRF will provide the available data, linkages to aid research on aged, geriatric health and social concerns for benefit of students and researchers.

The MoU maybe revoked or modified by mutual agreement between the institutions and may be extended beyond its initial five-year term by agreement. This document does not create any legal binding or obligations whatsoever between the two parties.

The move establishes a foundation of mutual understanding and interest and does not entail any financial obligations on either institutions. The validity of the document will be for five years, unless terminated earlier upon six months notice by either parties.

The Mou was signed by principal Dr Zahid Zaheer, coordinator of Internal Quality Assessment Cell Dr M H Dehghan, in-charge of Industry Institute Interaction Cell Dr S R Lahoti, SRF's executive president Dr Sanjay Salunke, president D D Kachole and secretary Dr Vijay Wadekar.

Innovation more important than research: Cdr Anil Save

YB and Evonik India Pvt Ltd. holds one-day seminar and poster presentation contest

YB REPORTER

The winners of the inter-college poster presentation contest were declared during the valedictory function of the one-day seminar on 'Pharmaceutical product development: An Industrial Perspective' which was organised by the College in association with Evonik India Pvt Ltd in November.

Managing director of Atra Pharmaceuticals, Cdr Anil Save Chief guest of the inaugural function.

Total forty two participants from 15 colleges vied for the top three cash prizes besides finding a place as research paper in the peer-reviewed 'Journal of Innovations in applied Pharmaceutical Sciences.' The competition was judged by Nitin Taur, associate research scientist in Formulation Development in Lupin Research Park and Mahesh Bharti, general manager, R&D Tripati Medicare Ltd.

The keynote address on 'Technology transfer from R&D to manufacturing Site' was delivered by Dr Deep Chandra Upadhyay, general manager and site head - Quality, Glenmark Pharmaceuticals Ltd. The plenary sessions were conducted by Ashish Dubey of Zaveri Pharmakem Pvt Ltd, Mumbai and Shubham Gupta of Evonik India Pvt Ltd. Winners of poster presentation competition were as follows: 1st prize (Rs 2,500) - Syeda Farheen Fatima (Rajesh Bhaui Tope College of Pharmacy) 2nd prize (Rs 1,500) Mudassir Khan Pathan (School of Pharmacy, SRTMU, Nanded) 3rd prize (Rs 1,000) Madhura Dapkekar (D Y Patil Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research, Pune). Organising secretary Dr S R Lahoti and members of the organising committee made efforts for the success of the seminar.

"Research students need to stand out in whatever they do. Fifty one per cent of patents filed in India are in pharmaceutical field. So there is a need to focus on how to do better. Innovation is more important than research. Doing things differently is no more enough, today we need to be backed with sufficient documentation and studies to prove what you have done is effective and consistent."

OMKAR MAKEY Mr Fresher 2019

Winning the Mr Fresher 2019 title was a dream come true for me. The boosted confidence will help me fulfill every task and conquer every challenge in the future. Hard work and positive attitude has helped me win this title. I thank Muzammil Sir for the much-needed guidance without which I won't have got a chance to learn so much from this event. I also thank my friends and judges for the love and support.

NISHAT QAZI Miss Fresher 2019

The Miss Fresher 2019 title will ever remain very special for it is the first recognition in YBCCP. I learned so much from Freshers Fiesta, but the most important lesson that I learned is that participation is more crucial than winning. Had I not participated I would have never won. I look forward to some really exciting time ahead. When I will recount my memories on my graduation day, this event will surely give me a high dose of nostalgic.
