B.Pharm Result Sheet 2021-22
Zoom to view the sheet

The image shows a large, dense grid table with many columns and rows. The text is too small to read, but it appears to be a result sheet for B.Pharm students. The table has a header section at the top with several columns, followed by a large body of rows. The columns likely represent student names, roll numbers, and scores in various subjects. The rows represent individual students. The table is very wide and tall, filling most of the page.

B.Pharm Result Sheet 2022-23

The image shows a large, dense grid table with many columns and rows. The text is too small to read, but it appears to be a result sheet for a B.Pharm program. The table has a header row and many data rows. The columns are organized into several groups, likely representing different subjects or semesters. The rows likely represent individual students. The table is mostly empty, with only a few cells containing text.
